

PlantNetwork
Connecting gardens, sharing skills

Plant Records Meeting 2020

ONLINE - Zoom
Wednesday 7th October 2020

Join us

This is an opportunity to find out more about new innovations and technology that can be used to enhance or simplify plant record keeping in gardens. There will also be an opportunity to discuss topics and issues of interest/relevance to you and your garden/organisation.

Programme

09:30	Online meeting room will open for informal 'networking'
10.00	Welcome to the day – Rupert Wilson (RHS) and Rebecca Slack (PlantNetwork)
10:15	Latest innovations in mapping approaches and technologies	Tim Brewer, Senior Lecturer in Resource Survey, Cranfield University
10:45	Creating a digital map and use in plant record keeping	Jonathan Smith, Consultant in Digital Mapping, Pear Technology
11:15	Break
11.30	Integrating plant records via mapping and other techniques: case study 1	Waheed Arshad, Botanist at Candide Gardening
12.00	Talk TBC	Speaker to be confirmed
12.30	Lightning Talks from participants: an opportunity to discuss issues, questions and topics of interest to you in five minute mini-sessions. Followed by discussion.
13.00	CLOSE

[Subject to change]