

PlantNetwork
Connecting gardens, sharing skills

Plant Records Meeting 2020

Swiss Garden and House at Shuttleworth, Bedfordshire
Wednesday 6th May 2020

Join us

This is an opportunity to find out more about new innovations and technology that can be used to enhance or simplify plant record keeping in gardens. There will also be an opportunity to discuss topics and issues of interest/relevance to you and your garden/organisation.

Programme

|  |   |  |
|--|---|--|
| 09.30  | Registration, refreshments & networking   |  |
| 10.00  | Welcome to the day  |  |
| 10.10  | Introduction to the Swiss Garden  |  |
| Session: Use of mapping in plant records                        |   |  |
| 10:30  | Latest innovations in mapping approaches and technologies   | Tim Brewer, Senior Lecturer in Resource Survey, Cranfield University |
| 11:00  | Creating a digital map and use in plant record keeping  | Jonathan Smith, Consultant in Digital Mapping, Pear Technology       |
| 11.30  | Integrating plant records via mapping and other techniques: case study 1  | Waheed Arshad, Botanist at Candide Gardening                         |
| 12.00  | Integrating plant records via mapping and other techniques: case study 2  | Speaker to be confirmed                                       |
| 12.30  | Demonstrations by innovators  |  |
| 13.00  | Lunch & Networking  |  |
| 14.00  | Tour of Swiss Garden – an opportunity to discuss record keeping in the garden   |  |
| 15:00  | Refreshment break   |  |
| Session: Plant Records group discussion – sharing good practice |   |  |
| 15.15  | Lightning Talks from participants: an opportunity to discuss issues, questions and topics of interest to you in five minute mini-sessions |  |
| 16:00  | Discussion of issues raised   |  |
| 16:30  | Close   |  |

[Subject to change]